CapitaGreen is an ultra-modern 40-storey Grade A office tower located within the heart of Singapore's Business District. The building boasts a striking natural facade of trees and living greenery equipped with a rooftop sky forest, sky terraces, a gymnasium and swimming pool at level 38, and a restaurant in level 40. This remarkable 5-star Green office has an amazing irrigation system and a cool void to maintain its greenery and to cool the building's temperature. The building's high floor-to-ceiling height of 3.2 metres allows for natural lighting to permeate the space, thus creating a sense of spaciousness. CapitaGreen offers a premier location in Singapore's Central Business District (CBD) just minutes away from public transport, local and international eateries and other amenities.

TRANSPORT & DINING

This A Grade Building is strategically located, offering great convenience to Raffles Place MRT Station, Tanjong Pagar MRT Station, Downtown MRT Station and multiple bus-stops within walking distance. There is also a taxi stand by the building lobby. Famous dining hotspots such as Lau Pat Sat Festival Market, China Square Food Centre, Starbucks, Bar-a-Vin, The Black Swan, etc are also at your doorstep.

The Living World Series by Ju Ming, which is characterised by quixotic everyman figures in their daily lives, pushes the boundaries of the populist movement and explores the nuances in modern living, themes which are universal and intimately accessible to everyone.

Aerating roots grow above ground as an extension of the subterranean system of roots, located below the green. These roots of our society and the lives of the humans above, making tangible the connection between the sky and the ground.

Olafur Eliasson is a visual artist whose critically acclaimed solo shows have appeared in major museums around the world since 1997.

There are 2 more art pieces, however we missed them. They are the 2x2 II by Antony Gormley and La Recontre by Etienne.
